

The Yellow Boat

Harvey has a big yellow boat. Every summer, he takes the boat on a trip to Dubai. This time, he wants to bring his friends, Layla and Ahmed, with him. There is just one problem, Layla can not swim! "Layla, you must know how to swim!", said Harvey.

Layla started swim lessons to grow her skills. She started slow, but Ahmed helped her get better. After four weeks of lessons, Layla could swim! Now she can swim paddle, kick, and float all by herself.

Harvey was happy!

The next day, Harvey and Layla and Ahmed set sail to Dubai.

Answer this in a written form:

Where would you go if you had a boat, and who would you take?
