

Riddles for Kids

I'm not a bird, but I can fly, Carrying people up, up in the sky.

Look up, little one, and tell me true,

What am I?

Can you solve this clue?

With flashing lights and a siren's call,
I rush to emergencies,
one and all.
I carry paramedics,
brave and true,
Saving lives is what we do.

What am I, little one, can you say?

Edukidss.com

Pedals spinning, wheels turning round,
I'm a two-wheeled wonder on the ground.

Ring my bell

and hop on tight,

Feel the wind as we take flight.

With handlebars and a comfy seat,

What am I, little one, can you see?

Edukidss.com

In cities bustling, I roam the street, Passengers hop on,
finding a seat.

I'm a vehicle of transport,
yes it's true.

With seats for many,
and a driver too.

What am I, little one,
do you know?

Riddles for Kids

Roaring engine, sleek and fast,
A thrilling ride that's built to last.
With two wheels
and a powerful roar,
I zoom through streets, forever more.

Leather jacket, helmet secure, I'm a rebel on the road, that's for sure.

What am I, little one, can you see?

Edukidss.com

Soft fur and whiskers, eyes so bright, Prowling in darkness,
a creature of the night.

Catching mice, in a secret keep.
Climbing trees and pouncing with glee.

What am I, little one, can you find?

Edukidss.com

A team of heroes, brave and strong,
Fighting fires, all day long.
With hoses and ladders, we come prepared,
To save lives and protect,
showing we care.
Water spraying, flames subsiding.

What am I, little one, can you tell?

Edukidss.com

Covered in fur, with a wagging tail,
A loyal companion,
never to fail.

Sniffing around,
exploring the day,

A faithful friend,
showing the way.

Riddles for Kids

In meadows green,
I gently graze,
A peaceful creature
with a friendly gaze.
With four sturdy legs,
I stand tall,
Providing milk and meat for all.

Mane flowing free,
a creature of grace,
With hooves that gallop at a thrilling pace.
Jumping hurdles,
racing on the track,
Or carrying riders
on a scenic hack.

What am I, little one, can you tell?

Edukidss.com

Wheels on tracks, a rhythmic chime,
I travel on rails, through space and time.
Chugging and huffing, steam or diesel,
Across landscapes,
through valleys and hills.
I stop at stations, a brief respite,
Then continue on, day or night.

What am I, little one, can you say?

Edukidss.com

In uniform of blue,
with a badge displayed, Protector of justice,
never afraid.
Patrolling the streets,
both day and night,
Ensuring safety,
keeping things right.

What am I, can you see?

Floating on waves, with a gentle rock,
I'm not a house, but I have a dock.
I sail on water, with a buoyant glide,
Through oceans and rivers,
I gracefully ride.

What am I, can you devote?

Edukidss.com

Made of twigs, leaves, and strands,
A home for eggs,
lovingly planned.

Warmed by feathers,
protected from harm,
A nest is a sanctuary,
snug and warm.

What am I, little one, can you guess?

Edukidss.com

With blades that slice through the air,
I can reach places, oh so rare.

Rescue missions, or sightseeing grand,
I'm a flying marvel,
soaring firsthand.

Guess this craft, do you know?

Edukidss.com

Underwater world, mysterious and vast,
I dive beneath,
quietly sailing past.

Through silent depths,
where creatures roam,
I explore the ocean, my watery home.
